Relief Sale

Sponsorship Guide

Get to know the New Hamburg Mennonite Relief Sale

Each year since 1967, thousands of visitors descend upon the New Hamburg Fairgrounds on the last Friday and Saturday of May. They're motivated not just by food and quilts but also by a passion to address the global need for relief from hunger, poverty and natural disasters and the desire to leave in their place developed and peaceful communities. The proceeds from the New Hamburg Mennonite Relief Sale are forwarded to Mennonite Central Committee (MCC), a non-profit organization bringing relief, development and peace in the name of Christ. Attendees visit many of the 40+ venues run by an estimated 2,000 volunteers who donate their time and expertise.

Auctions

With three different auctions on the agenda, hundreds of bidders raise their cards to place bids on a wide range of auction items, from quilts and tractors to gift certificates, paintings and coffee machines. Thanks to our generous donors, the auctions raised over $250,000 in 2023 and 2024 for MCC.

Hymn Sing

Hundreds of visitors join together to raise their voices in song as the sun sets on Friday evening of the sale. Though the hymn sing is only a few years old, it's becoming a rich Relief Sale tradition.

Displaced people living in Kanzombi are tending to the cassava planted in fields that CEFMC, a partner organization of churches, provided for them, through MCC, along with tools and seeds. Different crops are planted each growing season so that displaced and host people can feed their families and save seed for a future growing season. Working together in the fields creates a sense of community and normalcy for people, most of whom were used to growing their own food where they used to live in the Kasai region.
